

Annunciation School Principal

Annunciation School is seeking a principal beginning the 2012 - 2013 school year. Annunciation School was founded in 1956 and is located in Stockton, California. There are currently 294 students enrolled in grades Kindergarten through eighth grade. We are seeking applicants who are committed to Catholic education, and who demonstrate dynamic educational and spiritual leadership and the ability to work closely with students, faculty, parents and parish. Applicants should be practicing Catholics, possess a Masters degree in Educational Leadership and/or hold or be eligible to qualify for a California Administrative Credential. Successful experience in Catholic educational administration is preferred.

A detailed job description can be found on the Annunciation School website:

www.annunciation-school.org

Interested candidates should submit the following materials by February 10, 2012 to the address below.

- Cover letter explaining interest in the position and qualifications to be principal of Annunciation School
- Brief personal statement that includes the applicants thoughts on leading a Catholic school
- Current resume
- Names, email addresses and phone numbers of five references

*ALL APPLICATIONS WILL BE HELD IN CONFIDENCE

Mail application documents to:

Fr. John Armistead
Cathedral of the Annunciation
425 West Magnolia Street
Stockton, CA 95203